

Yang Dejun Partner

T +86 755 82931700

F +86 755 82931800

M +86 13822290805

E yangdejun@henrylaw.cn

Yang Dejun was born in 1985 in Yingshan, Anhui Province. In 2009, Yang Dejun graduated from Dalian Maritime University and received his bachelor degree in ocean navigation and a certificate of competence for third officer of seagoing ships.

Mr. Yang has extensive experience in commercial, shipping, ship and cargo insurance and is particularly skilled in handling complex maritime disputes such as cargo damage, Marine accidents, stranding, collision, general average, salvage, oil pollution and personal injury cases. With his professional knowledge and sincere service attitude, he has won wide praise and praise from customers.

When dealing with maritime cases, Mr. Yang not only has a profound legal foundation, but also is familiar with marine practice and international rules, and can provide clients with comprehensive and efficient legal solutions. Whether it involves ship collision, cargo loss, or complex insurance claims and P&I affairs, Mr. Yang can provide customers with accurate legal advice and strong support.

His working language: Chinese and English