Graduated from Northwest University of Political Science and Law in 2002 with a Bachelor of Laws degree. With over 15 years of interdisciplinary experience in finance and law, specializing in corporate law, financial guarantees, and investment financing. Previously worked at state-owned equity-backed guarantee companies, financial industry associations, and innovative capital institutions, gaining deep insights into financial institutions' operational logic and compliance management systems. Combining legal expertise with business investment perspectives, I provide solutions that balance risk control and value creation, helping clients achieve efficient business growth while maintaining risk management.

Service philosophy: With "law as the foundation, finance as the wing" as the core service idea, we are committed to providing professional, pragmatic and commercially feasible legal support for banks and various financial institutions, and promoting the steady and efficient development of business within the compliance framework.

The main professional fields include: corporate law, financial guarantee, venture capital law practice
